

IMPROVE WORKPLACE SAFETY WITH

On-the-Spot Corrective Actions

Creating incentives for all employees to improve safety in the workplace means that everyone collaborates to create a safer work environment. You can increase employee engagement while meeting OSHA requirements by creating structured incentive drawings that reward employees who identify and/or fix safety hazards. A truly open participatory program will prevent employees from hiding incidents—an important factor in OSHA reviews.

Juan notices the seat belt on his forklift is no longer latching correctly even though it passed inspection as recently as last week.

TOTAL COST TO FIX: $129

+ $79 in materials
+ Entered into a monthly drawing ($50)

Janae noticed trash by an electrical box and moved it at least 3 feet away.

TOTAL COST TO FIX: $62

+ $12 in materials
+ Entered into a monthly drawing ($50)

Kim observes a dangerous hidden corner with a high amount of forklift and foot traffic. She thinks the traffic lane should be more clearly marked and protected.

TOTAL COST TO FIX: $58

+ $8 in materials
+ Entered into a monthly drawing ($50)

A damaged switch on Thomas's factory line prevents it from accepting proper lockout/tagout devices. Luckily he found it before the equipment needed to be shutdown and serviced.

TOTAL COST TO FIX: $265

+ $215 in materials
+ Entered into a monthly drawing ($50)

Learn how Fit For Work can help create and implement your Safety Incentive Program

GIVE US A CALL:
877-348-4975
Find out more at: wellworkforce.com

“THE FUTURE IS PREVENTION. THE FUTURE IS NOW.”

Fit For Work is an established national provider of innovative workplace injury prevention services that has unmatched expertise and sustainability.

